From Father Pieter

Greetings! Today we celebrate Jesus' Ascension into Heaven forty days after Easter. Why do we "celebrate" the Ascension when Jesus goes away? Because the Ascension doesn't make Jesus' love and power "less present" but "more present." Ascended into Heaven, Jesus brings our humanity into the glorious life of the Trinity where He applies His saving work to every time and place. By God's gift of grace, especially through the Eucharist, we are joined to Jesus and in Jesus we receive the love of the Father and the Holy Spirit. Thanks be to God!

What's Happening at St. Joseph?

Totus Tuus: Sign up your kids today for our parish's week of Totus Tuus (week of June 28–July 3)! This is a faithful and fun program (like VBS) serving incoming 1st–12th graders.

Seminarian Pilgrimage: This week the seminarians and I are spending a few days in "Alba de Tormes," where St. Teresa of Avila died. Teresa is particularly known for her great wisdom and experience with prayer—so I am asking the Lord for the grace to know him deeply through prayer (which comes through daily perseverance even in dry times of prayer). After this we travel to Montserrat, where Ignatius of Loyola dedicated his life to Christ before eventually founding the Jesuit religious order. I am praying for you! Pray for us!
